CIVIL ACTION NO. 22-CV-4223

ORDER

AND NOW, this 17th day of January 2023, upon consideration of Plaintiff Brian Kevin Wesley's Complaint (ECF No. 2, 7) and Motion to Appoint Counsel (ECF No. 3), it is

ORDERED that:

1. The Complaint is DEEMED filed.
2. The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to send a copy of this Order to the Warden of Lancaster County Prison.
3. Brian Kevin Wesley, #15-2509, shall pay the full filing fee of $350 in installments, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b), regardless of the outcome of this case.¹ The Court directs the Warden of Lancaster County Prison or other appropriate official to assess an initial filing fee of 20% of the greater of (a) the average monthly deposits to Mr. Wesley's inmate account; or (b) the average monthly balance in Mr. Wesley's inmate account for the six-month period immediately preceding the filing of this case. The Warden of Lancaster County Prison or other appropriate official shall calculate, collect, and forward the initial payment assessed pursuant to this Order to the Court with a reference to the docket number for this case. In each succeeding month when the amount in Mr. Wesley's inmate trust fund account exceeds $10.00, the Warden of Lancaster County Prison Chester or other appropriate official shall forward payments to the Clerk of Court equaling 20% of the preceding month's income credited to Mr. Wesley's inmate account until the fees are paid. Each payment shall refer to the docket number for this case.

4. The Complaint is DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE for failure to state a claim pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(ii) for the reasons stated in the Court's Memorandum.

5. Mr. Wesley may file an amended complaint within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order to attempt to cure the defects identified by the Court. Any amended complaint must identify all defendants in the caption of the amended complaint in addition to identifying them in the body of the amended complaint and shall state the basis for Mr. Wesley's claims against each defendant. Mr. Wesley may refer to a defendant by last name only if that is the only identifying information possessed. If Mr. Wesley wishes to name individuals for whom he does not have any identifying information, he may refer to those individuals as John Doe #1, John Doe #2, etc.² The amended complaint shall be a complete document that does not rely on the initial Complaint or other papers filed in this case in an effort to state a claim. Mr. Wesley should file any amended complaint as one document at the same time rather than in a piecemeal or segmented style. When preparing his amended complaint, Mr. Wesley should be mindful of the Court's reasons for dismissing the claims in his initial Complaint as explained in the Court's

² Without the name of at least one individual or entity, however, the Court may be unable to direct service of any amended complaint that Mr. Wesley may file.

Memorandum. Upon the filing of an amended complaint, the Clerk shall not make service until so ORDERED by the Court.

6. The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to send Mr. Wesley a blank copy of the Court's form complaint for a prisoner filing a civil rights action bearing the above civil action number. Mr. Wesley may use this form to file his amended complaint if he chooses to do so.³

7. If Mr. Wesley does not wish to amend his Complaint and instead intends to stand on his Complaint as originally pled, he may file a notice with the Court within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order stating that intent, at which time the Court will issue a final order dismissing the case. Any such notice should be titled "Notice to Stand on Complaint," and shall include the civil action number for this case. See Weber v. McGrogan, 939 F.3d 232 (3d Cir. 2019) ("If the plaintiff does not desire to amend, he may file an appropriate notice with the district court asserting his intent to stand on the complaint, at which time an order to dismiss the action would be appropriate." (quoting Borelli v. City of Reading, 532 F.2d 950, 951 n.1 (3d Cir. 1976))); In re Westinghouse Sec. Litig., 90 F.3d 696, 703-04 (3d Cir. 1996) (holding "that the district court did not abuse its discretion when it dismissed with prejudice the otherwise viable claims . . . following plaintiffs' decision not to replead those claims" after being warned of consequences of dismissal).

8. If Mr. Wesley fails to file any response to this Order, the Court will conclude that Mr. Wesley intends to stand on his Complaint and will issue a final order dismissing this case.⁴

See Weber, 939 F.3d at 239-40 (explaining that a plaintiff's intent to stand on his complaint may be inferred from inaction after issuance of an order directing him to take action to cure a defective complaint).

9. Mr. Wesley's Motion to Appoint Counsel (ECF No. 3) is DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

Indeed, an analysis under Poulis is not required when a plaintiff willfully abandons the case or makes adjudication impossible, as would be the case when a plaintiff opts not to amend his complaint, leaving the case without an operative pleading. See Dickens v. Danberg, 700 F. App'x 116, 118 (3d Cir. 2017) (per curiam) ("Where a plaintiff's conduct clearly indicates that he willfully intends to abandon the case, or where the plaintiff's behavior is so contumacious as to make adjudication of the case impossible, a balancing of the Poulis factors is not necessary.").
